SHEPHERD'S VOICE:

The fifty days from Easter to Pentecost are celebrated in joy and exultation as one feast day. This Sunday after Easter is celebrated as Divine Mercy Sunday. On this day, we renew our trust in Jesus and turn to the fount of God's inconceivable mercy. Jesus revealed to St. Foustina Kowalska: "I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." Let us participate in the divine communion especially during this Easter Season by reading the sacred scriptures in faith and by approaching his Eucharistic table with love. Fr. Jose
