SHEPHERD'S VOICE:

Jesus entrusted the community of disciples the mission to proclaim the kingdom he ushered through word and deeds. All of us share in Jesus' mission on account of our baptism. It is not one of our options. It is our mission. Amid the dangers posed by the forces of evil, Jesus empowers us to share our faith. He has also promised heavenly reward for carrying out the mission of evangelization. Just like the seventy-two disciples returned rejoicing, every disciple is to be enlivened by missionary joy. How often do I experience the missionary joy that comes from sharing my faith? Fr. Jose

PARISH FINANCE COUNCIL:

Since each parish is to have a finance council established to aid the pastor(Canon #537), finance councils are established in both our parishes w.e.f. July 1, 2022 as per the norms established by the bishop for the selection of its members and its operation. The finance council is limited in its scope to the administration of parish goods. The parish pastoral council will continue to be the preeminent advisory body in the parish. The finance council reports to and accepts guidance from the pastoral council.
