A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER AARON NETT

Love Your Enemies

Dear Friends,

The testimonies of the Saints can help us to see how it is possible to live out the challenging message that our Lord gives us in today's Gospel, "love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." St. Maximilian Kolbe, who was martyred at the consecration camp in Auschwitz, lived this command of Jesus and won his heavenly crown.

One account states, "He was put into a group of other priests, all of whom were forced to work under vicious and hateful guards who treated them horribly. The peaceful nature of St. Maximilian Kolbe bothered the Nazi guards who would rather have seen him expressing his anguish and pain. In an effort to "break him" the Nazis gave him the worst jobs and beat him more often than others. In one instance, the guards beat him so badly he was left lying, wounded gravely and nearly dead."

It would have been easy for the Saint to get bitter or give up in the face of such horrible treatment and inhumane circumstances, but instead he united to Christ on the cross, and through God's grace, found the strength to love until the very end. Kolbe chose to take the place of a married man who was chosen to die by starvation. He lived out his final days bringing souls home to God. Whenever the soldiers went to check on him, they found him on his knees in the prison cell, in the middle of dying people praying and singing praises to God.

The great Saint once said, "Authentic love rises above the creature and immerses itself in God: in him, and through him he loves everyone, good and bad, friends and enemies. A hand full of love reaches out to everyone, pray for everyone, suffer for everyone, wish everyone good, wish happiness for everyone, since it is God who wants it!"

In times when we find it most difficult to love, may we look to and call upon St. Maximilian and the other Saints to draw upon the strength of Christ to love even our enemies.

God bless you, Father Aaron

Notes:

*Thank you for participating in the "Prayer for Vocations" and the "All Things New Prayer" before the Masses. It is a great way that we help prepare for the next phase of the St. Cloud Diocese planning process and continue to make disciples and call forth needed vocations for the future in our parishes.

*We are excited for the "Walk to Mary" pilgrimage coming up this May! It is sure to be a fun and faith-filled time. Consider joining us!

* Mark your calendars for our Lenten retreat happening later on in March with the Fathers of Mercy. We are looking forward to a wonderful retreat!

*Thank you for your continued prayers, good works and faithfulness shown in many ways throughout our ACC. God is good and he is at work in many ways in the hearts of his people. I am very blessed and grateful to be your pastor.
